Macron wins: class collaboration is no way to stop his new offensive [1]

Dave Stockton, Workers power 393 Tue, 26/04/2022 - 16:58

The second round of France's presidential election on 24 April saw Emmanuel Macron, an arrogant neoliberal 'reformer', returned to the Elysée for a second term. Read more... [1]

[Alliance for Workers Liberty: apologists for imperialism \[8\]](#)

Thu, 15/05/2008 - 22:00

The leaders of the Alliance for Workers Liberty (AWL) argue that socialists should not fight for the withdrawal of US and British troops from Iraq and Afghanistan. They claim that, were the occupation to end immediately, reactionary Islamic forces would annihilate the Iraqi labour movement. Some comrades in the organisation are challenging this shameful position. To assuage their fears, Martin Thomas published a "questions and answer" in the run up to their conference. Simon Hardy and Luke Cooper unpick his arguments and find - unsurprisingly - that Thomas is an apologist for imperialism Read more... [8]

[Respect's crisis is opportunity for new workers party \[10\]](#)

Mon, 01/10/2007 - 17:00

In early September Respect MP George Galloway circulated a letter to the Respect National Council entitled 'It was the best of times, it was the worst of times?'. The letter appears to point to a possible early disintegration of the 'Unity Coalition.' Galloway makes a series of bitter complaints about how Respect is run, ranging from complaints over office procedures to accusations of ineptitude in election work and a general lack of accountability and democracy. He ends by warning that Respect may be facing oblivion. Although he does not mention by name the organisation he holds responsible for all this, it is quite obviously the Socialist Workers Party.
