Fifth International Journal [1]

Fifth International is the current English language journal of the League for the Fifth International. Its purpose is to argue for the kind of revolutionary politics that we need today to organise ourselves and overthrow capitalism on a global scale. The Journal provides a mix of indepth historical and political analysis, as well as resolutions and documents of the League passed at our international meetings and conferences.

The Credit Crunch - a Marxist Analysis [4]

What caused the credit crunch? Some said lenders got 'too greedy?'. Others blamed the regulators. Yet more denied it was even happening. The Credit Crunch ? A Marxist Analysis offers a radically different explanation.

Charting how the events unfolded, and drawing on Karl Marx's theory of crisis, Richard Brenner and Michael Pröbsting argue that the credit crunch foreshadows a crisis of globalisation.

Rough Guide to the Anticapitalist Movement [11]

This pamphlet surveys the global movement, from its origins in Chiapas and Seattle, through the writings of its principal theorists, and the history of its summit sieges and its social forums. Unapologetically partisan, it argues that to rid the globe of capitalism, the movement must take a big step towards the formation of a new world party of social revolution.

The politics of the SWP - a Trotskyist critique [13]

This workers power pamphlet shows that far from standing in the tradition of Lenin & Trotsky, the key of the SWP's politics represent a fundamental break with Trotskyism: on party building, on the analysis of the USSR and Eastern Europe, on the revolutionary programme and on the relationship between the revolutionary vanguard and the working class.
